New ornaments - Judie Solomon

Our meeting this month will be held at Thistle Needleworks. Judie will teach two counted thread pieces. In the morning, a pulled thread pair of candles will be offered. The afternoon session will feature a pair of candles stitched in Blackwork. You may choose to stitch one or both on your registration form.

Participants should bring 6" x 6" stretcher bars or 5-6" hoop, embroidery scissors and magnification, if needed. Kit price for each project is $5.00.

We plan to go to one of the restaurants in the plaza for lunch. Please join us.

The deadline for signing up for this class is November 29th. A coupon for registration is at the end of this newsletter.

"Stitches and Techniques" - Lynn Payette - A Foley/Cornelius Teacher

Saturday, April 21st, 2012

Trip to Granby Historical Society and Lunch

The program that the historical society has arranged for us will include the following:

A viewing of two silk embroideries made by sisters Hilpah and Melissa Hays in 1803 while they attended the Litchfield Female Academy. Not usually on display, they will be taken out of storage so our members can view them.

A bed-turning of quilts held in the historic Abijah Rowe House, circa 1732. Embroidered redwork, crazy quilts and others will be included, along with examples of fine quilting.

A viewing of samplers in the Rowe House and an exhibit of various pieces of handwork set up especially for the Connecticut River Valley Embroiderers Guild. They understand that our interests cover most forms of needlework including fine crochet and knitting.

A display of vintage ladies gowns, including a lace wedding gown from the late 1930s.

The morning program will last two hours, and the fee is $15/person.

Friday & Saturday, June 15th and 16th and Saturday, December 8th, 2012
